Consumers of Ink.

The undersigned begs to inform the highly respected community of this city and the country, that he has established an

INK MANUFACTORY.

No. 50, Calle 25 de Mayo.

And is prepared to sell as good Ink, as any made in any part of the globe, and warranted to retain its beautiful jet black color which it has at the moment when used, at 50 p. ℥ less than the same can be bought at any other house.

People under the impression, that they pay their $20 m|c. for a quart bottle of English Ink, can have the same proved, that most of the Ink sold for English, is made in this country, and imposed upon the public as such. But I am not ashamed to put my own Name on the labels, being fully convinced that my Ink is of a much superior quality, and possesses more virtues than most of the Inks.

I.—It is of a very rich black at the moment when used.

II.—Retains its color.

III.—Runs freely off the pen.

IV.—A preserver of the eyes to those, who have much to write at night because they need not to force their eyesight, to see what they have written.

For the reasons explained, I hope that any prejudice generally entertained against Home Manufacture will be laid aside, and all I ask is, to try the same which will be a benefit to the buyer, and the country, in assisting Home Industry.

N. B.—Orders left at the office will be punctually attended to and delivered free of any charges.

THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 1863.

ELECTION VERSUS RE ELECTION.

We have the felicity to live under a Constitution, by virtue of which our Provincial Assembly will proceed on the 1st prox. to receive the adieu of our present Governor, and nominate his successor. To guard against the evil effects of excessive gratitude on the part of the electors towards the out-going ruler, who is "ex-officio" beyond reproach, it is distinctly provided that he cannot be re-elected, unless after an interval of 3 years' rustication. Of course, the Constitution never supposed the case when only one man was worthy to fill the chair of Governor, rightly judging such an hypothesis incompatible with the existence of a free, enlightened Republic.

It is, however, the fortune of Buenos Ayres to create factitious difficulties, when the path marked out for us is clear and open. A dozen candidates have been pushed forward for the Provincial supremacy, and a hundred more burn with patriotic zeal to serve their country in this arduous post Alas! such is the degeneracy of the age, that instead of applauding their self-devotion, the Legislative electors pretend to thrust them all aside and continue, by a simple vote of confidence, the rule of Sr. Saavedra. "One false step makes many," and the confusion which would attend the nomination of the only individual specially forbidden by the Constitution, may be imagined when we reflect on the errors of the present Governor's elevation to power, and the antagonism of sentiment regarding its legality.

When General Mitre was installed President, Sor. Cazon became provisional Governor or "locum-tenens," but the Doctors of Laws were touched, like Henry VIII. with conscientious scruples, and to silence such remorseful qualms, a proper magistrate was chosen in the person of Sor. Saavedra, whose antecedents were of a negative character, as he had never been a party-man or remarkable for political experience. It was no doubt wrong to depose Cazon, and choose a Governor for 7 months, when the period of office is 3 years, but it is worse to attempt to cure that error by a more flagrant one, "re-electing" contrary to the Constitution, and securing the duration of one Government beyond the limits expressly laid down. The fomenters of this difficulty wish to exhibit their talents at the risk of law and order, and assert Saavedra was no more than his predecessor, a shadow or symbol of Governor: this would invalidate his first election, as Cazon was ex officio provisional Governor and no one could be placed over his head in the same capacity. Surely Sor. Saavedra ought to know, himself, what he is; whether full Governor of the Province or merely an illegal pro tem?

All the acts of his administration were by virtue, of the former title, and no one in Buenos Aires thought of questioning his right, until his too officious admirers, with a view to appreciate his merits, endeavored to nullify all his past acts as Governor, by denying him that dignity.

Let us even suppose the Constitution an acrobat's hoop, the leaping through which, when done with agility, is worthy of applause: If Sor Saavedra does not feel, like the Spartan, that his country has many better sons than he, we will lay aside the objections of a Constitutional theorem, and give the problem—To find the best Governor.

Is it one given to fossils and zoology? No! such an one is fitter for the manager of a museum. Is it one who ruins the camp-interest by setting an exorbitant value on lands? No! he would not even suit "for an English colony". Is it a feeble old gentleman who leaves all to his Ministers? No! for then the controlling power is divided and lost. Is it a visionary who gets up splendid schemes in rapid succession? No! for we read Hell is paved with good intentions. Is it, in fine, one of the Anti-reform association? No! for Dr. Rawson has said our motto must be "Go-ahead".

Adopting our evening colleague's idea we recount the qualities which should not be found in the new Governor, and the converse will give the desired problem. A new broom sweeps clean, is a true adage, and although our casuistic opponents may quote the other "the d——we know is better than the d——we don't know," we incline most unhesitatingly to the election of a new Governor, thinking as we before said, and as the "Nacion Argentina" (which now calls for re election) almost agreed with us, that any change must be for the better.

REVOLUTIONS.

If there is anything peculiarly afflicting to a foreigner who has the welfare of this country at heart, it is the facility with which revolutions are got up, and the countenance and moral support disturbers of the public peace receive, not only from a certain class, but from many of the newspapers of Buenos Aires. We speak now in reference to the late Flores humbug, which had hardly been known to the public, when the papers of this city openly espoused his cause, and wished him success in his invasion. These newspapers, in one way or other, are connected with the Government; and, as a natural consequence, the people in Montevideo regard both our National and Provincial Government as the instigators of the whole business, when, if the truth be told, our National Government has too much sense, and our Provincial men too little energy, to have anything to do with Flores and his scheme,

But if President Berro has no reason to blame our Government, he may thank his stars that, owing to the meeting of Congress and election of Governor, many of our would-be Oriental regenerators, who are thirsting to flesh and grease their maiden swords, have been unable to start

It is but right that the Montevidean Government should know that Flores' conduct is censured by every respectable man in Buenos Ayres, and that the native papers which openly espouse his cause are but the organ of a clique which is ever creating disturbance and annoyance amongst us.

This clique cries down Peñaloza and Clavero, but in the same breath cheers on Flores, and salutes him as the would-be liberator of an oppressed country. In what way the Banda Oriental is oppressed, we have not yet discovered; but we consider, he confers a boon upon his country, the President or Governor who punishes with the utmost severity these pigmy revolutionists, whose sole aim is personal advantage and national degradation.

When in Heaven's name, may we ask, shall we get done with revolutions in the River Plate? Never, so long as Buenos Ayres sets the example of revolution to the whole republic. What steps have been taken to publicly condemn Flores' conduct? Has there been any meeting held? has the Government made any efforts to discover the accomplices of this man? or, in fact, done anything to convince our neighbours of our innocence in the matter? On the contrary, the very newspapers of the city, edited by men connected with the Government, and supported by Government money, openly sympathise with the invader. Honestly and candidly speaking, no words are too strong against this scandalous violation of international law. Something must be done to put a stop to this Walkerising spirit, or people in Europe will never trust us with their spare capital.

After all our preaching and assurances to our foreign readers, that the spirit of revolution was extinct, we find ourselves grossly deceived. As a sort of revolutionary precocity, we suppose that the next news we shall hear from Montevideo will be that some fellow has started off to invade Buenos Ayres, and, as a necessary consequence, all the Montevidean papers cheering the invaders on. We have yet to learn that the province of Buenos Ayres is more protected than the Banda Oriental against invasion. Half a dozen of men landing at any part 5 leagues from the city, can do just as much damage in Buenos Ayres as in the republic of the Uruguay. They can rob and plunder, and cry out "Down with the Government!" as well in Magdalena as in Colonia People living in glass houses should avoid throwing stones. Lamela and Nadal, with half a dozen men, did more than Flores: they took the towns of the Fortin and Giles without a blow. Who is there in the camps of Buenos Ayres to oppose a determined bandit, with a handful of followers—the Juez de Paz, Alcaldes and Tenientes. And yet, notwithstanding all this, the native papers laugh at the threat thrown out in Montevideo. A more defenceless country on the face of the whole globe never existed than the camps of Buenos Aires. Half a dozen of "montaneros" would ride from north to south, without the slightest probability of their being caught. In the republic of Uruguay, this is not so; the estancieros have more metal in them; they know their rights, and how to maintain them.

EDITOR's TABLE.

Our Subscribers in the camp districts, are anxious to know whether the Hand book is a present or not? In answer, we beg to say that we published it at the low price of $25 in order that it might be acceptable to all, although the proper price of the book should have been 50 dols.; our friends in the country districts will therefore understand, that the book although given to the public at 30 dols, of right, belongs only to our subscribers.

We regret to hear of the sudden indisposition of Dr Rawson, Minister of the Interior, who is at present confined to his bed by sciatica

Mr Wheelright returns to Rosario on Monday, on business concerning the railroad, which he wishes to regulate previous to leaving for England,

The Pavon, which is due to-day, is expected to bring good news from the interior and three senators for Congress.

The Pulaski has been taken up by the Oriental's for $25,000. We learn, however, from an estanciero who resides near the Higueras, that everything is very quiet, and that people do not pay the least attention to the movements of Flores, who is now in Brazilian territory.

It is with the greatest pleasure that we hear the works of the Boca Railway are progressing rapidly; already more than a mile of the earthwork are completed and wired in This is what we may term going ahead, to use Dr. Rawson's and Mr. Perkin's expression.

Mr Wheelright will, we understand, on his arrival in England, immediately purchase the rails, sleepers, etc, so that we may expect to steam it to the Boca before the year is out.

A gentleman from Paraná applied to us yesterday, for six quintals of cotton seed to send to the Diamante: he states that the cotton we bought from that locality is by no means the best, and promises to send us some shortly, which is far superior.

We hear that the Guardia Nacional is about being put under complete repair, and to get a new boiler; probably our friends in Paseo Julio or in Barracas will be glad to hear this intelligence.

Major Rickard, our fellow townsman, who is at present engaged in purchasing machinery for the San Juan mines in Europe, has written by last mail to Gov. Sarmiento and President Mitre's son: we are delighted to hear that he will shortly return. and that he has completed his purchases. News about town is very scarce: Flores business is a fiambre: Politics are becoming a sort of emetic; and for a change, people are talking of the great Progreso ball and the dresses to be worn: we learn that it is to be a splendid affair.

Money is getting very easy, particularly paper, which many find a difficulty to employ. One of our private banks, we hear, will reduce the rate of interest on paper, 1st May, as it is literally flooded with currency: we suppose the other banks will follow suit, as it is a most injurious system for the banks not to agree amongst themselves on the rate.

The farmers who held over their wool are now reaping the reward due their patience, The deposit stores are becoming cleaned out, and the arrival of wool from the camp is so limited that the supply must be less than the demand. Two very superior lots of wool at present in store are apt to fetch good prices. We hear that yesterday $100 was offered for one and declined.

Ounces look as if they are never to come down again, although there is no reasonable cause for their present high figure. The nomination of Governor, it is said, has a serious influence on our money market · yet it is lamentable to think that these eternal politics should actually have an effect on our tea and sugar.

THE LUXAN JUDGE.

Villa de Luxan, 22nd April '63.

It was only this morning that I noticed a paragraph in the "Weekly Standard" of the 2nd inst., saying there were many complaints against our Juez de Paz: justice to all obliges me to say what I know of that gentleman.

1st. —He does not at all advise nor encourage litigation, he endeavours to settle all matters if at all possible, by arbitration or some such way, without going to the expensive rounds of the law.

2nd.—He does not leave for the morrow what he can do to-day, which is rather rare in this country.

3rd.—If a man is unfortunate enough to get arrested for being intoxicated and unruly in the streets, the police dare not hack him up with their swords, or ill-use him as usual. Now they have to arrest him tenderly, and deposit him without the least abuse, and then he is not left all night on the cold floor, famishing with hunger, thirst and cold; with only the merciless bricks and fleas for his bed-fellow and comfort; which is I think the general practice in other districts, and was here before our present Magistrate got into office; but it is not so here now. I have seen Dr. Mariana, our present Magistrate, go more than once between the hours of 10 and 11 at night, to see if the prisoners were sober enough to be liberated, and when he found them so, he discharged them with an advice and exhortation to go to bed, and not commit themselves again. This can be testified to, by about a dozen whom he had the charity and humanity to liberate about the hour of 11 o'clock at night, while others in his position, would be enjoying themselves at the Billiard-table, or comfortably in bed, and not bestowing a thought on their unfortunate fellow-creatures, famishing with thirst and cold—besides the appearance of our Plaza and streets, is vastly improved since his appointment to the Magistracy.

THE O'CONNELL MONUMENT.

Villa Mercedes, April 23rd '63.

To the Editor:—I regret to see what little notice is taken of the building, or preparation to build, the O'Connell Testament, but that is no fault of yours as you did your duty: let the blame rest where it should, and believe me, that the day may come even in South America, when blame and shame will attach to such want of National feelings, as are so selfishly exhibited.

I am dear Sirs, your obdt. servant.

E. R.

In reference to the above, we give the following list of those who have already subscribed:

Mr. M. G. Mulhall	130
" John Kehoe, San Pedro	100
" Thomas Fallon, Hibernian house	100
" Michael McDonogh, Fortin de Areco	100
" P. Rosenblad	100

We will close the list on the 30th prox being the 19th anniversary of the unjust imprisonment of the Liberator of Ireland.

MONTEVIDEO.

Nothing is known of Flores, but he is supposed to have taken refuge beyond the Brazilian frontier. The Reforma asserts that bills have been issued in his favor for £17,000 payable at Montevideo. The 'Villa Salto' has been armed with 3 good pieces of cannon and is about to cruise along the coast. The armament received by Government, from Buenos Aires amounts to 3,000 muskets, including a late shipment of 70 cases. The rumor ran that Flores had been seen in Tacuarembo, and the Nat. Guard were on his track. The forces in Colonia, Higeritas and S. Jose amount to 1500 men. Col, Brijido Silveira, a noted Colorado, has not joined the filibusters, but remains quietly in Entre Rios. The Scotch hero, Col. Mundell, is also said to hold aloof from the rebellion, although it was thought he lent horses to Flores en route for Brazil. Sor Acosta y Lara, ex-minister of Flores was set at liberty on Saturday evening, and at once came up to Buenos Ayres.

One Sor Cairo has opened a Gymnasium which promises to become very popular. The distribution of premiums to the girls of the public-schools took place on Sunday: there were 1200 pupils present besides a large concourse of citizens; D. Antonio Gonzales of Mercedes is suffering 2 months imprisonment for breach of press law.

The Chamber of Deputies has passed an unanimous vote of confidence in Pres Berro, declaring Flores a public traitor: he is compared to Walker: although apparently much worse since the latter brought civil war into a foreign country, not into his own.

PARAGUAY.

The Ygurey brings us dates up to the 18th inst from Asuncion. President Lopez has received autograph congratulations from the kings of Denmark and Bavaria. The Semanario has a long article on agriculture, advising the plantation of oranges on a large scale. Mesdames Falcon and Espiñola died, the former young, the latter at an advanced age. Cotton-planting was giving very favourable results. Capt. Lavarello's expedition, on board the Gran Chaco left Asuncion for the Rio Bermejo, on the 16th inst. Mr, Whitehead had arrived, on return from B Ayres, and the arsenal was progressing in its works. Some marble quarries have been found on the banks of the Paraguay. A malefactor named Zapaef, who had committed great crimes in the country parts was arrested, The hot weather had abated and some heavy falls of rain succeeded.

STOP THIEF!

Chascomus, 27th April.

Sir—Regarding the columns of the "Standard" as the surest means of getting a robber caught who has now escaped, after the commission of various crimes, and laughs at all the judges and alcaldes in the country, I beg that you will publish the following description of the fellow. This scoundrel stops at nothing. One poor Irishman had a narrow escape from being murdered by him; he robbed a Mr Carregell of nearly everything in his house, one night that he permitted him to remain as a traveller; he robbed Mr Grant, of San Pedro, of about 10,000 dollars, and several others besides.

You will confer a great favor, not only on your subscribers down here, but also on your supporters in the North, if you will publish the following description of this scoundrel, who I believe, has gone up to the North I trust that our fellow-countrymen will follow our example, and wherever the fellow goes, publish it in the "Standard,' so that all may know his whereabouts.

It is impossible to get justice in the camps, so henceforth we shall try and obtain it through your valuable columns.

The following is a description of this noted Robber,

He goes by the name of Jack, or Chas Schmith.

Blind of the right eye.
A little lame,
Black beard.
Black hair.
Slight figure.
About 5 feet 8 in. in height.
Age 40 to 45 years.
German by birth but speaks English and Spanish well.

COTTON ITEMS.

To the Editors of the Standard.

Gentlemen:

Please deliver to bearer for our ac, ten to 12 arr. best cotton seed which we require to send to Entre Rios, to some parties who purpose sowing cotton on a large scale, in that province. Also please send us 4 or 5 pamphlets treating of the culture of cotton—and oblige

Your most respt.
A. Benites & Co.

Buenos Aires, April 29th 1863,

Sr Ximenez, of Corrientes, has returned from his plantation at Goya: we regret to hear that his cotton suffered severely from drought and insects: he has only 25,000 plants in a healthy state. The gin arrived safely, but has has not yet been put up.

AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM JOHN MITCHEL.

Among the batch of correspondence captured on the person of Mr Saunders was one addressed by John Mitchel, one of the Irish rebels of '48, and commences by stating how he escaped into Virginia. He arrived incog. at New York, and proceeded as fast as possible to one of the southern counties, where he, in company with two officers of the rebel army, crossed the Potomac, "close by four gun-boats, and under the bows of a Yankee revenue cutter." He extols the people of the lower counties of Maryland, says they are loyal to the core to the conspiracy, and that they are constantly smuggling contraband goods to their friends in the south. Mr Mitchel says that north of the Potomac there is no law, and that he was in doubt all the time whether he was in America or Poland, or Venetia. Of course, the down trodden and humiliated people of Maryland engage a great portion of the writer's attention, and he cannot find words enough to extol their patience and Southern patriotism Richmond he finds very little changed, and that the Irish citizens are giving a hearty support to the Government.

The letter concludes with the following;—"There are, as I learn, about forty thousand Irishmen in the Southern army; but they are distributed, as they ought to be, through all regiments and all arms of the service, and have never been formed into an Irish brigade. They do not pretend to fight this American quarrel "as Irishmen," nor do they desecrate the name nor prostitute the flag of Ireland at all. As for the Northern Irish, who seem to have got themselves persuaded that the enfranchisement of Ireland is somehow to result from the subjugation of the South, and that the repeal of one Union in Europe depends on the enforcement of another Union in America, our friends here do not well understand the process of reasoning which leads to that conclusion; nor do I. They call those Northern Irish, as well as all other Northern forces, by the one general name, Yankees; and indignantly protest that the green bunting under which Irish brigades have chosen to march to the invasion and subjugation of the South is not the banner of Ireland at all—merely one of the Yankee insignia. In all this I agree with them entirely. Nobody has the right to unfurl the colours of Ireland in a war of invasion and plunder, and coercion. These Irish at the South have never pretended to mix up their native country in the struggle; they indulge in no Fontenoyism; they flaunt no sunbursts; they display on their banners no round towers, wolf-dogs, or crownless harps; but go ahead quite simply, under the stars and bars of their adopted country, to defend their own homes and hearths from a host of greedy invaders. If they should be ever overpowered and defeated, Ireland at least, will not be dishonoured in their persons. But they have no thought of being defeated; and I will sum up my impression by declaring my conviction that this Confederacy can never be conquered.

MISCELLANEA.

Father Passaglia's parliamentary career has been cruelly nipped in the bud, his return by the constituency of Montecchio having been nullified because, being a stipendiary, he cannot be chosen as a representative of the nation. Only a certain number of persons salaried by the State in any capacity can occupy a seat in the Chamber, and that number being already filled up, the political priest cannot say his say as a number of the Italian Parliament. "Sic transit gloria" Passagliæ.

THE ANGLO-CHINESE EXPEDITION.—On Thursday last a magnificent despatch paddle steamer, ordered by Captain Sherrard Osborne for his Anglo-Chinese fleet, was successfully launched from the yard of Mr John White, of West Cowes, Isle of Wight. Her leading dimensions are as follows:—Length between perpendiculars 239ft.; tonnage, builders' measurement, 1,000 tons. The engines, which are of 300 horse power, are constructed by Mess. Day and Co., of the Northam Iron-works, and will be placed and fitted on board in the Southampton Docks. From the beautiful lines of this very handsome steamer, and the reputation of her builders, this last new addition to Captain Osborne's fleet will, it is confidently predicted, attain a high rate of speed under steam. The screw steam yacht Thule, lately the property of Mr Arthur Anderson, has been purchased for use as a despatch boat for the fleet, and is fitting out for the purpose in Southampton Docks.

LOCAL EVENTS.

CANDIDATES.—On Sunday the election of Governor is to take place and we are informed that the principal candidates are Messrs.

Mariano Saavedra.
Norberto de la Riestra.
Martin Gainza.

The probabilities are in favor of the two former.

FINE ANIMALS.—The Bremen ship 'Asia' from Bremen, arrived the day before yesterday, brought 217 fine rams and sheep and the 'Belle Poule' from Liverpool brought a few bulls noticed in an advertisement in another part of the paper.

A great auction of 300 rams and 100 sheep is to take place at Moron to-morrow.

SPECIE.—The 'Stephen Hotchijs' from New York has brought 259 ounces and 1000 sovereigns.

CORDOVA RAILWAY.—The members of the several committees appointed by Government are invited to attend at a meeting which will be held at Mr. Wheelwright's apartments Hotel de Louvre to-morrow at 11 o'clock,

FIAT LUX.—The candidate of the Colaborator of the "Tribuna" is Dr. Martin Gainza; unfortunately the colaborator foresees that his candidate will not be elected.

WESTERN RAILWAY.—The omnibusses of this line are going to commence again at the former prices and the stations will be one at the corner of Peru and Mexico streets and the other, corner of Defensa and Mexico.

DEATH BY LIGHTNING.—On Monday morning about 9 o'clock, in the Lomas de Zamora, a person named Urbano Gonzales left his house on horseback with the intention of driving some bullocks away; his wife, feeling uneasy at his absence, sent her son to search for him, when the boy found his father and his horse lifeless. The only mark of the passage of the fluid on his person is a slight discoloration on his forehead. The poor fellow has left a wife and eight children to deplore his loss.

BRITISH TRADE.—It is very remarkable that the Banda Oriental with one fourth the population, and a still greater disproportion of territorial extent, as regards the Argentine Confederation, should have one half the trade with Great Britain; that the former has and more than Mexico, which has twenty times its populat[illegible]

D. MARIANO VAREL[illegible] ted his resignation of the post [illegible] Secretary of the Interior, on account [illegible] his late election to the Local Legislature.

The French Minister waited on the Secretary for Foreign affairs a few days ago, to state the reasons which had moved the Imperial Cabinet to refuse the ex-equatur to the dispatches of our Consul General in Paris, D. Hector F. Varela.

[ARMAM]EN.—The National Go[vernmen]t have ordered the formation [of] companies of Riflemen in the [Pro]vince of San Juan.

25th MAY.—We hear the National Government has disposed that the National Guard shall not form as customary in the Plaza Victoria, on this Anniversary of Independence.

SAN NICOLAS.—It has been decided to erect a public school in that city, and a committee has been appointed to carry out the works.

The Government subscribes $240,000 and the municipality of that town the remainder, $110,000.

Several residents of that locality, request a grant of two millions currency for the establishment of a bank; offering as a guarantee, good title deeds of landed property for an equivalent amount.

The French barque Union is to come from Montevideo to load in this port for Marseilles at 50 francs for bales ?0 d? dry hides and 10 per cent.

Yesterday the following lots of dry hides were sold,

400 Cordoba at 36 1\|2 and 37rls.
277 Entre Rios do 41 do.

6000 fanegas salt per Assian from Cadiz at 6 1\|2rls 4 months.

350 tons coal per Armonia to arrive from Cardiff and 416 do per Baltic from do, both at 10 1\|2 patacons on board.

We hear that $100 has been refused to-day at the plazas for two superior lots of wool.

The Mauá Bank in future will open at 9 o'clock a, m and we hear is going to reduce very shortly the rate of interest on currency.

The British brig Sunnyside has been laid on the berth for London by John P. Boyd & Co.

We are told that at the coming Congress some fifty different banks schemes will be brought before the house, we should like to know with what capital these banks are going to start it is a notorious fact that there is very little specie in the interior, we hope and trust some safe guard will be taken to save the country from being flooded with a worthless paper currency, Against the creation of good banks there can be no objection, but we predict that the country will be reduced to a state of hopeless bankruptcy, if banks such as the Casa de Moneda spring up in the interior, we enter our solemn protest against them, and hope that the gentlemen who have the projects ready cut and dry will be sent about their business.

Tiene la grata satisfaccion de comunicar á sus favorecedores en particular y al publico en general, que se halla en posesion de las mas recientes mejoras que se han hecho en punto de dentaduras de amber ó caoutchouc volcanizado, las cuales son preferible a las en base de oro, por el peso y suavidad del material de las piezas á colocarse en la boca. Sin embargo pone como antes dentaduras en base de oro con garantia de duracion,

Creo escusado mencionar las demas operaciones concernientes al arte del dentista, como poner dientes á pivot, limpiar la dentadura, emplomar los dientes cariados, extraer muelas y raices con los mas perfectos instrumentos etc. etc. por ser suficientemente conocida su habilidad en este punto por su larga práctica.

NOTICE.

Retiring from Business.

WILLIAM GIBSON.

49 & 51 calle Defensa

The first English draper establishment of Buenos Ayres.

William Gibson before leaving for England begs leave to return his sincere thanks for the kind and liberal support he has received from his friends in town and camp since his commencing business in 1859 and hereby intimates that he has disposed of his business and stock to Mr. PK. GALBRAITH, and solicits a continuance of their patronage in favor of his successor who will in every respect conduct the business in all its branches upon the same principles as heretofore, receiving regular supplies of first class goods from England Ireland and Scotland suitable for families in town and camp. Parties who have any claims against me will present their accounts and those indebted to me will confer a favor by an immediate settlement.

WILLIAM GIBSON.

A 28 x

Referring to the preceeding advertisement, I beg to intimate to the inhabitants of Buenos Ayres. and those residing in the camp, that, having purchased the stock &c. of the above establishment, the business hitherto carried on by Mr. Gibson will be continued by me, on the same premises, from MONDAY THE 4th MAY, where, by making it my constant aim to have always on hand the best class of goods, suitable both for town, and camp wear [imported direct from the manufacturers] I hope to merit a continuance of the patronage received by my predecessor.

The present extensive stock will be sold off at a considerable reduction on former prices to make room for new goods shortly expected from England.

Buenos Ayres 28th April 1863,

PATRICK GALBRAITH.

Amber Teeth Setting.
156—Calle Cuyo—156

[C]harles E. Krause sets teeth by a new intention, amber, which is found superior to every other mode. It accommodates itself to the gums and palate much better than gold, which requires springs. A set of teeth in amber, after two days, serves for mastication, speaking ,and lasts a life time.

My collection of artificial teeth is very fine, and cannot be distinguished from a natural set. I will also clean teeth with great care.

I have a number of instrument for extracting roots of teeth, also for stuffing the same with gold, silver, &c., which I guarantee for a number of years.

Wool presses, cranes, ant destroying machine wire stretchers or screws, of a superior quality for erecting wire fences; wire rodres, &c., 1 horse power chain pumps for camp and chacra purposes, simple and complete ; steam engines, ship smith work in general and all kinds of machinery, repaired at the shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms.

The great share of patronage which he has enjoyed since commencing business is the best assurance he can give his friends of promptness and fidelity in the execution of all orders entrusted to him ; and with this view he has taken as partner an active and experienced man of business who will ... him ... moors ... rofession.

COLEGIO ANGLO-PORTENO
205—CALLE MAYPU—205

This school has been established for several years, and is wellknown in this city.

No pains are spared to make the place of instruction attractive to the pupils, and the instruction itself profitable.

Patrons are respectfully invited to visit the school, and to note carefully the monthly reports of progress and deportment.

The English, Spanish, and French languages are carefully taught by skilful instructors, and every branch of useful or ornamental education may be prosecuted in either of these languages.

French and drawing are taught after school hours. Also an afternoon class for fancy work four times a week.

Day pupils can be received at any time, and a few could be accommodated as boarders or half-boarders.

Sept. 26th.
